One Day Finance Summit

on

Innovations in Finance

(November 22, 2019)

ABOUT THE SUMMIT

The last few years have seen a stream of experiments and innovations in the area of Finance. The financial revolution has triggered the introduction of a wide variety of new products and services at our doorsteps. In the era of digital transformation both front office and back office risks and security concerns have increased and therefore banks, Financial Institutions and finance departments of Corporates need to be more upgraded with technology and they need to focus on innovative and differentiated products and services based on advanced technologies. With this backdrop in mind the sub themes of this summit have been set as:

- Emerging issues in FinTech
- Emerging issues in Banking and Insurance
