Each Party agrees and undertakes that it shall not reveal, and shall use its reasonable efforts to ensure that its directors, officers, managers, employees (including those on secondment), legal, financial and professional advisors, consultants and bankers (collectively, "Representatives") do not reveal, to any third party any Confidential Information without the prior written consent of either Party, as the case may be. The term "Confidential Information" as used in this Agreement means (i) any information concerning the organization, business, intellectual property, technology, trade secrets, know-how, finance, transactions or affairs of either Party, their Subsidiary or Affiliates, directors, officers or employees (whether conveyed in written, oral or in any other form and whether such information is furnished before, on or after the date hereof); (ii) any information whatsoever concerning or relating to (a) any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or (b) the resolution of such claim or dispute; and (iii) any information or materials prepared by or for a Party or its Representatives that contain or otherwise reflect, or are generated from, Confidential Information. The provisions of this Clause 8 shall not apply to:

- (i) disclosure of Confidential Information that is already in the public domain or becomes generally available to the public other than through the act or omission of or as a result of disclosure by or at the direction of a Party or any of its Representatives in breach of this Agreement;

- (ii) disclosure by a Party to its Representatives provided such Representatives are bound by similar confidentiality obligations;

- (iii) disclosure, after giving prior notice to the other Parties to the extent practicable under the circumstances and subject to any practicable arrangements to protect confidentiality, to the extent required under the rules of any stock exchange or by applicable laws or governmental regulations or judicial process or generally accepted accounting principles applicable to any Party;

- (iv) Confidential Information acquired independently by a Party from a third party source not obligated to the Party disclosing Confidential Information to keep it confidential;

- (v) Confidential Information already known or already in the lawful possession of the Party receiving Confidential Information as of the date of its disclosure;

9. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

9.1 Each Party represents, warrants and covenants to the other that:

6 | Page

- (e) it has the full power and absolute authority to enter into, execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations and the transactions contemplated hereby and, it is duly incorporated or organized with limited liability and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization;

- (f) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other action of such Party;

- (g) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement does not constitute a breach of its charter documents or, any agreement, arrangement or understanding, oral or written, entered into by it with any third party;

- (h) the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement does not violate any statute, law, regulation, rule, order, decree, injunction or other restriction of any governmental entity, court or tribunal to which it is subject;

- (i) it has obtained all necessary approvals, consents, sanctions or authorizations required to enter into and perform this Agreement and no other approvals, consents, sanctions or authorizations of any regulatory authority or any other Person are required to be obtained by it for the execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement;

- (j) Other than in the normal course of business, there is no pending or threatened litigation or other proceeding by any third party challenging the validity or propriety of, or otherwise relating to or involving this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby preventing it from entering into this Agreement or performing its obligations under and in accordance with the Agreement; and

- (k) assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery hereof by the other Party, this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against such Party in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally.

9.2 The Subscriber warrants that it shall not use or access the Application for any other purpose other than as provided under this Agreement. The Subscriber shall not commercially exploit the Application in any manner or provide any unauthorized access to anyone without written permission from the Licensor.

9.3 The Licensor warrants that the Application does not include any material that is pornographic, profane, obscene, abusive, harassing, threatening, libelous, defamatory, fraudulent, misleading, illegal, harassing, abusive, threatening, harmful, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, racially offensive directed at private individuals or creates a genuine risk of physical injury or property damage, credibly threatens people or public safety, or organizes or encourages harm.

10. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

7 | Page

10.1 The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Licensor and its Affiliates from and against direct and actual losses, reasonable costs including without limitation the reasonable fees, costs of investigation, expenses, claims, damages, penalties and liabilities arising out of any claims, actions or proceedings (collectively, "Losses") which may be incurred, made against or suffered by the Licensor, its directors, officers, agents or employees arising directly out of or in connection with or as a consequence of (i) the non-performance of the Subscriber's obligations under this Agreement, (ii) any material breach of any representations, warranties, covenants made by the Subscriber under this Agreement, (iii) the willful misconduct or gross negligence by the Subscriber of its obligations under this Agreement (iv) breach of Intellectual Property Rights.

10.2 The Licensor shall hold harmless the Subscriber against any Losses which may be incurred or suffered by the Subscriber as a consequence of breach of Intellectual Property Rights.

10.3 Neither party shall be liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising from this Agreement. The total liability of the Subscriber under this Agreement shall not exceed the amount paid for the subscription for preceding 12 months, except in the case of liability for negligence, fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation or deceit.

11. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India as applicable from time to time.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ARBITRATION

12.1 In the case of any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with or relating to this Agreement, its construction or interpretation or the rights, duties and obligations of either of the Parties hereunder, or the termination or validity hereof, the Parties shall attempt to first resolve such dispute or claim through good faith discussions between them.

12.2 If the dispute or claim is not resolved through such discussions as contemplated in clause 12.1 above within 30 (thirty) days after one Party has served a written notice on the other Party requesting the commencement of discussions, then such dispute or claim shall be referred at the request in writing of either Party to binding arbitration by a panel of 3 (three) arbitrators ("the Arbitration Board"). In accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and any amendments or modifications made thereto. All arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the English language and the seat and venue of arbitration shall be in Delhi. The Parties shall be entitled to seek interim relief from the courts of India for which the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of law in Delhi. The Arbitration Board shall decide any such dispute or claim strictly in accordance with the governing law specified in Clause 11 above. Judgment upon any arbitral award rendered hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction, or an application may be made to such court for judicial acceptance of the award and an order of enforcement, as the case may be.

12.3 Each Party shall co-operate in good faith to expedite (to the maximum extent practicable) the conduct of any arbitral proceedings commenced under this Agreement.

8 | Page

12.4 The costs and expenses of the arbitration, including, without limitation, the fees of the Arbitration Board, shall be borne equally by the Parties to the dispute or claim and each Party shall bear and pay its own costs, expenses, fees, disbursements and other charges of its counsel in connection with the arbitration proceedings, except as may be otherwise determined by the Arbitration Board. The Arbitration Board shall have the power to award interest on any sum awarded pursuant to the arbitration proceedings and such sum would carry interest, if awarded, until the actual payment of such amounts.

12.5 Any award made by the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding on both the Parties.

13. FORCE MAJEURE

13.1 Any non-performance or delay in performance by either Party of any of its duties, obligations or responsibilities under this Agreement, shall be excused if, and to the extent that such non-performance or delay in performance is caused by Force Majeure.

13.2 Force Majeure shall mean the following events and circumstances to the extent that they, or their consequences, have an effect described herein:

- acts of God, including without limitation fire, storms, floods, earthquake or lightning;
- war, hostilities, terrorist acts, riots, civil commotion or disturbances, change in governmental laws, orders or regulations adversely affecting or preventing due performance by either Party of its duties, obligations or responsibilities under this Agreement, embargoes, actions by a government, central or state in India or overseas, or an agency thereof, sabotage or explosions;
- strikes, lockouts or other concerted industrial action; or
- any such other acts, occurrences, events or circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Party affected.

13.3 If such Force Majeure as aforesaid continues for an uninterrupted period exceeding 60 (sixty) Business Days, the Parties shall meet forthwith to discuss the consequences of the Force Majeure and the course of action to be taken to mitigate the effects thereof or to be adopted in the circumstances.

14. Right to Audit

During the term of this Agreement, the Licensor may audit the Application, its usage, records etc., to ensure compliance with this Agreement upon at least 10 business days' notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that the Licensor may conduct an audit at any time, in the event of (i) investigations of claims of misappropriation, fraud, or business irregularities of a potentially criminal nature, or (ii) Licensor reasonably believes that an audit is necessary to address a material operational problem or issue that poses a threat to Licensor's business.

14. GENERAL TERMS

14.1 No Agency or Partnership: The Parties shall be independent contractors. Neither of them shall be considered the partner or employee of the other Party hereto in its performance of any and all duties.
